INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Falcon Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Falcon Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Falcon Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The additional information contained on pages 8 through 11 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2001 and 2000

(1) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Organization and nature of business -

Falcon Securities, Inc. (the Company) is registered as a broker/dealer with the Securities Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. No securities were held for customers at December 31, 2001 and 2000 or during the years then ended.

Investments not readily marketable -

Investments not readily marketable consist of private placement issues and are carried at cost. Investments are periodically reviewed by management for evidence indicating that the value is permanently impaired. In the event a decline in value of an investment is judged to be other than temporary, a loss would be recognized.

Cash equivalents -

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and demand deposits in commercial banks and brokerage firms.

Statement of changes in subordinated liabilities -

The accompanying financial statements do not include a statement of changes in liabilities subordinated to the claims of general creditors as required under Rule 17a-5 of the Act, since no such liabilities existed at December 31, 2001 and 2000 or during the years then ended.

Use of estimates -

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(2) INCOME TAXES:

The Company's stockholders have elected to be taxed under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code whereby the income or loss of the Company is, in general, reported by the stockholder. Accordingly, the Company does not recognize a provision for income taxes.

(3) NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS:

The Company is required to maintain minimum net capital as defined in Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. The Company uses the aggregate indebtedness method which requires the Company to maintain minimum net capital of 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness or $25,000, whichever is greater, unless the broker-dealer: does not receive, directly or indirectly, or hold funds or securities for, or owe funds or securities to customers; does not carry customer accounts; and clears all trades through another broker-dealer, in which case minimum net capital of $5,000 is required. The Act also requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital not exceed 15 to 1.

The Company does not carry customer accounts and does not transact trades and, accordingly, the Company is required to maintain $5,000 minimum net capital. Net capital as defined under Rule 15c3-1 was $11,247 and $12,555 at December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. The Company had no indebtedness at December 31, 2001 and 2000.

(4) RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

The Company uses certain office facilities and general and administrative services provided by a company affiliated through common ownership without charge.

EXEMPTIVE PROVISION UNDER RULE 15c3-3

December 31, 2001

An exemption from Rule 15c3-3 is claimed under Section (k)(2)(B).

COMPUTATION FOR DETERMINATION OF RESERVE REQUIREMENT
PURSUANT TO RULE 15C3-3

AND

INFORMATION RELATIVE TO THE POSSESSION OR CONTROL
REQUIREMENTS PURSUANT TO RULE 15C3-3

The Company is not required to maintain a "Special Reserve Bank Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers" or to report "Information Relating to Possession and Control Requirements" because it is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 under the provisions of paragraph (k) of Rule 15c3-3 at December 31, 2001.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' SUPPLEMENTARY
REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

6311 Ranch Drive
Little Rock, AR 72223
(501) 868-7486
(501) 868-7750 (Fax)

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Falcon Securities, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of Falcon Securities, Inc. (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2001, we considered the Company's internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted the following matter involving the accounting system and its operation that we consider to be a material weakness as defined above. This condition was considered in determining the nature, timing and extent of the procedures to be performed in our audit of the financial statements of Falcon Securities, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2001, and this report does not affect our report thereon dated January 15, 2002.

Falcon Securities, Inc. is a small company, and essentially all of its operational and record-keeping procedures are performed by a limited number of individuals. Consequently, the segregation of duties which is normally required for effective internal control is not practicable. The Company has no plans to change present operational and record-keeping procedures until justified by future growth or expansion of its business activities. This condition is mitigated by the active involvement of the Company's president during the process of preparation and review of the Company's financial statements.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001, to meet the SEC's objectives, except for the condition discussed in the preceding paragraph that we believe is a material inadequacy in the practices and procedures comprehended in the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of the stockholders and management of Falcon Securities, Inc., the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., the Arkansas Securities Department, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
